

Remembering the PLEDGE . . . Delivering the PROMISE!

NATIONAL INITIATIVE

Classic through the Ages

Classics through the Ages promote art education among young people. The youth are expected to recognize and develop an avenue to support art education which includes music, dance and theater. The aim is to teach and familiarize youth to recognize and develop an awareness and appreciation of art. Students are mentored through all aspects of art education.

- Music and Art appreciation seminars through storytelling and play acting. Students act out stories that have been read to them as the culminating event.
- Art Show/ Art Fair--Exhibit art work of local artist or students.
- Project Homeless Showcase art produced by homeless students. Display for sell their art work and partner with local organizations for assistance and funding.
